

Preconference Day on Math Accessibility

Friday, December 11, 2015, 9:45 a.m.–4:30 p.m.

Hyatt Regency Monterey Hotel, 1 Old Golf Course Road, Monterey, CA 93940

Sponsored by the High Tech Center Training Unit (HTCTU) of the California Community Colleges in conjunction with the CMC3 Conference

Topics covered will include the following:

- Understanding learning styles and how they affect both your students' learning and your view of teaching
- Strategies to improve success in math for all students
- Information on working with individuals with a variety of disability types: visual (blind and visually impaired), auditory (deaf and hard of hearing), processing (learning disabilities), etc.
- Special techniques for accommodating students with visual and hearing impairments
- What "accessibility" means when teaching online
- Tools and software to improve access
- And we will answer all of your questions related to access and accommodation!

Continental breakfast the morning of the preconference and lunch are included.

There is no charge for the preconference, and all attendees from the California Community Colleges will be eligible to receive a $150 stipend for the day. If you also attend the CMC3 Conference, we will add another $50. Learn and earn! Forms to claim the stipend will be collected at the end of the preconference, and checks will be mailed.

Register online at www.htctutrainig.net/

If you have never registered for a training sponsored by the HTCTU before, please create a login and password. Under "Register for a Training," select "[12/11/2015] CMC3 Preconference on Math Accessibility"

Please contact Gaeir Dietrich, 408-996-6047, for more information or to let us know if you have special dietary needs. For more information on the CMC3 Conference, please see their website:

<http://www.cmc3.org/conference/Monterey15/Monterey15.html>

DSPS STAFF: We encourage CCC DSPS staff to attend the preconference with your math faculty. For DSPS staff who attend, we will offer a choice of claiming the $150 stipend or receiving the standard reimbursement that we provide for DSPS staff who attend onsite HTCTU trainings (travel and one overnight for long-distance travel or if you attend CMC3 in addition to the preconference). If you also attend the CMC3 conference, you will still be eligible for the additional $50 toward your conference registration fees.

TRAVEL: The nearest airport is Monterey, and the Monterey Hyatt is a short taxi or shuttle ride from the airport